

Parenting Together to Keep Kids First

Goal: Develop co-parenting skills to help your child or children.

Step One: You are required by the Wayne and Union County Court Judges to complete the computer website work at UpToParents. Org .

Step Two: Complete the appropriate website work, NOT just the certificate of completion, and print out your responses to ALL of the exercises. Bring the exercises to the class, if you do not have access to a computer, you can use the computer at your local library.

Step Three: Register for the Parenting Together to Keep Kids First class within Seven (7) days of receiving this information sheet by calling (765) 973-9213, you have sixty (60) days to do the website work and take the class at Morrison Reeves Library. This class is required by the Courts and they will be notified once you have attended the class. Please have your CAUSE NUMBER of your case available when you call to register. Classes are held from 5:00 p.m. until approximately 7:00 p.m.

All classes are held at Morrison Reeves Library, the class will be held in the BARD ROOM on the LOWER LEVEL of the library, the address is 80 N.6th St. Richmond, IN 47374. Any questions about the class should be directed to the Co-Parenting Registration Line, NOT MORRISSON REEVES. The number is (765) 973-9213. The BARD ROOM can be accessed by the stairs or the elevator which are located to the left of the main entrance to the library when you come in.

Step Four: Bring with you to the class a photo identification, at least one (1) photo of your child or children, completed responses to website exercises, and $40.00 exact cash or money order for each parent.

You will not get credit for the class unless you have all the above items. PLEASE ARRIVE ON TIME. If the library is closed for any reason, the class will not be held that evening. Only the registered person may attend the class - No children please. We encourage you to attend with your co-parent, however, it is not required.
